

BCPB CHARTER

The members of BCPB engage

1. to negotiate, to make agreements and to execute these in a highly professional and qualitative way based on the Production Guidelines for the collaboration between Communication Agencies (ACC) and independent Production Companies (BCPB), The BCPB White Book and The Universal Principles of Engagement;
2. to protect and to look after our moral and economic interests and our profession ethics;
3. to take on our profession according to the Belgian and European legislation and in particular with regards to the labor regulations in the audiovisual industry;
4. to regularize, improve, develop and protect the national market;
5. to be the point of contact for clients-mandators, suppliers as well as allied associations and government authorities;
6. to have a loyal competition: independent but with respect for each other;
7. through internal and open communication to be attentive to and to combat possible risks of abuse situations in the industry;
8. to be an interexchange platform that organizes meetings regularly;
9. to organize activities in order to expound on the different aspects of the profession;
10. to promote the Belgian commercial film production.